A message from Mr Cheek and Mrs Sykes

As we start the second half of the summer term, I would like to say a sincere well done and thank you to all our pupils and families for your support and encouragement. There is some fantastic learning happening. We have had some amazing learning experiences for the children such as the residential and the triathlon. We are looking forward to more events and trips this half term. We are pleased to welcome Mrs Danby to our teaching team to be Kingfisher's' teacher until the summer.

Thank you to parents who are ensuring that children attend school every day. We are delighted that attendance continues to be excellent thanks to your efforts; this will have an impact not only on attendance data but also on your child's learning. Every school day counts.

Owls had the most wonderful time at the Brownlee Triathlon last month.

They did not let the rain put them off and all ran, cycled and swam with fantastic enthusiasm!

We were very proud of how they represented Skelton Primary. Well done, Owls!

Kingfishers had an amazing time at The Bushcraft Company at Castle Howard. The three day residential included interesting and fun activities such as: fire starting, emergency wild first aid, shelter building and even gutting a salmon and eating its eyeballs! All the pupils were incredible and threw themselves into every activity, testing their comfort zones and taking on new challenges. Well done to all pupils. Mr Maskell, Mrs Schippers and Mr Hampson were so proud of you all!

Early Years have been celebrating Pride. We talked about our own similarities and differences and thought about acceptance and belonging. We have enjoyed making bunting, pride emojis and a handprint rainbow.

Woodpeckers have really enjoyed learning new skills in PE. They are working really well as a team and learning how to follow instructions.
